Attendee FAQ's

Do you allow pets?

Yes, we do allow dogs. HOWEVER, they must be on leashes or carried at all times. We ask that you clean up after your animals. WARNING: Our crowds tend to get quite large which can be dangerous for smaller pets so please keep them on a short leash or carry when possible.

Do you charge for entry?

No. Entry to the show is FREE!

Do you charge for parking?

Parking is Free on our show grounds. There are also areas adjacent to our show grounds that are accessible for parking. PARK AT YOUR OWN RISK as there are areas of deep, soft and sandy soil where you may get stuck.

Do you provide parking for RV's?

No. We are limited in the amount of parking we have available and spaces are designed for cars and trucks. A Class B or similar small RV may fit.

Do you have handicap parking?

Yes, we do offer a limited amount of handicap parking. This is a first come, first serve basis.

Do you offer camping to the public?

No. There is BLM dry-camping adjacent and just south of our show grounds. Here is a link to more information on BLM camping.

Are there any campgrounds with full hook-ups in the area?

Yes. There are many campgrounds in and around Quartzsite. Please note that they will fill up very early as long term customers have priority. There is a large campground directly across the street from our main entrance on Central Blvd. called Rice Ranch Campground.

Are there other shows going on in Quartzsite?

Most of the major shows are happening during our show but there are several other shows and events that take place in and around Quartzsite during the season. Here is a link to the Quartzsite Chamber of Commerce.
